THO TURN OUT ALL RIGHT .- Yesterday Deputy Collector Hawley and officers Pender and Scroggins arrested three men of a suspicious character, who have attracted considerable attention in the city. The men were armed with rifles and had coon skin pouches, powder horns, about fifteen pounds of lead, a cask of powder, a large number of caps, &c. They were equipped trio of Western Virginia Secesh. Upon being taken to the Adjutant General's office they told the following story: Two are named Harman, father and son, and the ba as it was prodent for them to take. third man is named Crangle. They are from little Genessee, on the Alleghany, river, in the State of New York. They Harman, the elder, was a country editor, and was of course poor. He broke up and not having snything to do, himself and son and Crangle started down the Alleghany in a skiff on a hunting expedition They stopped and took a six weeks hunt in the Laurel country of Warren country Pennsylvania. They saw an occasional ar track and a few deer, but other huntand Harman & Co. abandoned the hunt as and came down to Pittsburgh, and from Pittsburgh they came to this city, ar- is on his way to Minnesota. riving here yesterday morning.

It seems that at Steubenville the move-

Adjutant General Samuels examined a number of letters found upon the elder Harman and also upon Crangle. Among those found in possession of the former was one from his son who is a captain in-the Federal army and who was at the battle of Bull's Run. This letter gave a description of the Bull Run business and was very intelligently written. The Gen-eral finding nothing of a suspicious character in the correspondence and the me telling a very plausible story, concluded to discharge them, but Deputy Collector Hawley said he would keep the contraband goods as they were going to Jackson county, Virginia, where Harman has rela-

BOST MORE PRISONERS FROM ROMNEY .-Lieut. W. B. Kelley, (son of Gen. Kelley,) of the First Virginia Regiment, arrived last evening from Romney, having in charge five secesh prisoners. It appears that or Friday night last, some secession maraud ed and carried away from Patterson's Creeks, two brothers, named Oarskadden, influential Union men. An old man named Rhinehart and his son, a man named Johnson, 76 years of age, and his son, and a man named Davis, were selzed, and will be held as hostages for the return of the Carekaddens. They were brought to the city last evening, and confined in SHUT HIM UP. - Rhodes, who published the Parkersburgh News, a second organ, gave out a few days since that he intended to resume the publication of his paper, when the military authorities shut up his effects, and told him to wait till the war was over. It will be remembered that the News office was destroyed, it was said, by a mob, but a great many people accused Rhodes of destroying his concern to excite night, and it was never fully ascertained who did it. There is not a secession paper in Western Virginia, and we hope no body ill be permitted to start one.

PRISONERS PROM MASON COUNTY .-The Sallie List arrived last evening from Cincinnati. She brings three prisoners from Point Pleasant, Mason county, a fellow named Hanks and two men named Carr, father and sen. Hanks' offence is undertaking to be Postmaster for the Southern Confederacy. The Carrs, after the massacre at Guyandotte, jumped up and cracked their heels in an insane manner, and were so overjoyed that the Union men had to take them in charge to keep them from injuring themselves. They are now in the Atheneum.

It is regarded, in fact, as as admission of disappointment in all the giltering promites of external sid that were originally set before the deluded South, and a himiliating confession that their "King set before the deluded South, and a humiliating confession that their "King Cotton" is unable to rule the world.—Stripped of its empty bombast and glaring faisebood it is nothing more nor less than a complaint that the Europeaa powers will not attempt to break the blockade established by the Federal Government, and undertake, a war with the United States in behalf of the rebels. Indeed nothing cise tangible has been discovered in the measure. Davis comments on the capture of Mason and Slidell are the subject of ridicule is all circles here. In fact, the whole affair is considered too beauty even to humber the abused people to whom it is addressed.
